Fastener Fair Stuttgart 2017: Stand bookings for the International Exhibition for the Fastener and Fixing Industry well underway

The 7th International Exhibition for the Fastener and Fixing Industry, Fastener Fair Stuttgart 2017, will take place from 28 – 30 March 2017 at Messe Stuttgart in Germany. Due to a new hall positioning in halls 1, 3 and 5, there will be potential for further growth of the exhibition; a total of 20,500 square metres net exhibition space are now available. Around one year ahead of the show stand bookings are well underway.

Over 500 companies from 25 countries have already secured their stand space at the International Exhibition for the Fastener and Fixing Industry. Amongst them are companies from Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain, the United Kingdom, Turkey, China, India and Taiwan. To date, more than 14,000 square metres of the available stand space have been booked or reserved.

Fastener Fair Stuttgart has become the leading exhibition for this industry sector over the years. The exhibition profile covers all areas of the fastener and fixing industry: industrial fasteners and fixings, construction fixings, assembly and installation systems as well as fastener manufacturing technology. The main visitor groups are distributors, wholesalers, suppliers, engineers and other industry professionals who source and trade fasteners and fixings.

Fastener Fair Stuttgart 2015 was a record event

The previous Fastener Fair Stuttgart was once again a huge success. With 832 exhibitors from 42 countries and 11,060 visitors from 86 countries on a net exhibition space of 18,500 square metres, the event was the biggest ever. The exhibitors were highly satisfied with the event: 97% said that they had achieved their aims, 99% stated that they would exhibit again and 88% were able to establish successful business relations. The visitors were also highly satisfied with the exhibition, with 95% indicating that they would visit the exhibition again in the future. The Top 10 visitor countries were Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, France, Taiwan, Poland, Spain, the Netherlands, Turkey and the Czech Republic. It was once again a very international show; 60% of visitors came from outside Germany to Stuttgart to discover the latest trends and technologies from all areas of fastener and fixing technology.

New Exhibitor Brochure now available

For companies who are interested in exhibiting at Fastener Fair Stuttgart 2017, a new exhibitor brochure is now available from the organisers. The brochure can be requested via the exhibition website. Further detailed information on the show is accessible on the newly designed, user-friendly website, including a detailed exhibition profile, facts & figures about the exhibition, information regarding stand bookings, as well as videos and photos from the previous show.
